THE BIRTH OF THE HUNGER FREE CAMPAIGN

In 2014, the Celani Family Foundation initiated the Hunger Free in the D campaign after reading about how many struggling Michigan families went without a Thanksgiving meal. Instead of standing along the sidelines, they decided to launch the Hunger Free in the D campaign. Celani Family Foundation has committed to donating $200,000 to Capuchin Soup Kitchen and Forgotten Harvest. Collaborating with Paul W. Smith of WJR radio, the Hunger Free in the D Telethon was born. In the first year, the campaign raised more than $250,000.

TOGETHER WE HAVE RAISED OVER $4M SINCE 2014!
