Dear “Hunger Free in the D” Supporters,

We hope this update finds you and your families safe & healthy as we head into the holiday season. As everyone is aware 2020 has been an extraordinary year and continues to be just that. With the recent uptick in Covid-19 cases in the state we wanted to inform you of the changes we have implemented for this year’s Johnstone Supply / Celani Family Foundation HFID event scheduled for November 23rd at the Palazzo di Bocce in Lake Orion.

This year’s radiothon will now become a Virtual Live Broadcast on the Paul W. Smith Show, 760AM Radio or WJR Facebook Livestream in support of the Governor’s mandate to contain the spread of the virus. Our top priority is ensuring the safety and well-being of all our guests, sponsors, and team members.

We would like to inform you of the following changes:

- A) Anyone wishing to make a contribution can call the “Hunger Free in the D” Donation Line at 313.254.4788 or go online at www.hungerfreeinthed.com and hit donate.
- B) The Bocce Ball Tournament has been postponed until the Spring of 2021 at which time the Paul W. Smith & Frank Beckmann shows will join us live again onsite at Palazzo di Bocce.

Note: The Celani Family Foundation is a 501 (c)3 Organization and therefore, all donations are tax deductible.

As always, we are committed to providing a safe environment for all our participants. To assist with any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Lindsey Glasson our event coordinator at lindsey@lindseyglasson.com / 248.535.7604.

Thank you again for your continued support. Please have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving.

Kindest regards,

Vicki & Tom Celani
